

JAPAN'S NEXT MOVE

Is a Combined Land and Naval Attack

Which is to be Made Soon on Port Arthur

The Clash May Come Sooner Than Expected--100,000 Japanese Soldiers Believed to Have Left for Manchuria to Cut Off Russian Communication While Attack is Made on Port Arthur.

London, Feb. 18.—News from the far East today again consists of the reported movements of troops. There is little else of import on hand. This news, however, tends to confirm the belief already current in semi-official quarters that every effort of the part of the Japanese officials is bent toward getting in thoroughly, efficient condition for a concentrated action against Port Arthur.

That an immense force of troops is being rushed to the Liao Tung peninsula seems certain. As to the number reports differ, but all dispatches display a remarkable unanimity in stating that this is the objective point of the majority of the transports which have been leaving the various Japanese ports for several days past.

The Tien-Tsin correspondent of the Leader claims to have ascertained from an official authority that the number of troops which have left Japan for Manchuria is 100,000. The correspondent adds that the men are due at Dalny or in that vicinity today.

This if true means that the clash will come even sooner than has been generally expected. Another dispatch, which goes to confirm the belief that this attack on the Russian far Eastern stronghold at Port Arthur is the next move on the Japanese program, comes from Rome. The Russian minister there is quoted as saying that the Japanese have established a base at the Elliot Islands. These islands are not many miles distant from the east coast of the Liao-Tung peninsula and about 75 miles to the northeast of Port Arthur itself.

The establishment of a base here would seem to indicate that Japan has a double purpose in view. First, the landing of troops, to act as reinforcements for the forces landed further down the peninsula, and, secondly, the spreading of troops from the islands over the more northern portion of the peninsula, to cut off railroad communication and to act as a rear defense while the attack on Port Arthur is in progress.

In forming beliefs regarding Japanese movements however there is one important fact that must not be lost sight of. The Japanese is essentially wily and close mouthed, and there is always the possibility that his movements may have an entirely different object from that which he appears to be striving for. A dispatch from Chee Foo, China, this morning states that the previous attacks of the Japanese fleet were nothing more than skirmishes, and that their successful termination has been as much surprise to the Japanese as it has to the outside world. This statement has caused many to wonder what will happen to the Russians if these acts have been but skirmishes, when a concerted and well planned attack on the Russian fleet occurs.

Reports today also contain the information that preparations are advancing for a clash at some point near the Yalu river. One report has it that Russian forces have reached a point near Wifu. Still another dispatch states that a force of Japanese cavalry is in the same vicinity.

Considerable comment is being caused today by the difference in the manner of transporting troops by the opposing forces. From St. Petersburg comes the statement that the Russian forces are being crowded in ordinary freight cars like so much merchandise, that their food supply is meager, and that many are falling by the way because of the cold.

Far different from this is the manner in which the Japs are reported to be traveling to the front. They are given commodious quarters with plenty of supplies, and with warm attire to keep their bodies warm. The inconvenience caused by the land travel by tramping over frozen ground and in deep snow is obviated by the Japs, who are transporting the majority of their forces far up the Korean shore in transports and thus cutting off considerable of the distance between the home cities and the expected point of hostilities. The result of this difference of transportation will doubtless be plainly apparent on the more hardy condition of the Japs when the time for the display of such hardness comes.

RUSSIAN LOSS AT CHEMULPO.
London, Feb. 18.—(Bulletin)—The Tokio correspondent of the Deuter Telegram company, wires that 17 Russian officers and 439 men were either killed or drowned in the fight at Chemulpo, Korea, a week ago Tuesday, when the Russian cruisers Variag and Korietz were sunk.

RUSSIA WANTS VENGEANCE.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—An official proclamation was given out today, containing the following:
"Eight days have now elapsed since all Russia was shaken with profound indignation against an enemy who suddenly broke off negotiations and by a treacherous attack endeavored to obtain an easy success in a war long desired. The Russian nation, with natural impatience, desires prompt vengeance, and awaits feverishly news from the far east."

INSPIRATION

TO WIPE JAPAN OFF THE MAP IS THE DEFEAT

Sustained by Russia at Opening of the War Declares Commander Alexandre Boutakoff.

New York, Feb. 18.—Commander Alexandre Boutakoff, navy attache of the Russian legation, now at the Waldorf, expresses himself as confident that the Japanese successes in the far East will only serve to stir his countrymen to the most determined action, instead of disheartening or discouraging them. He added that he was unable to account for the evident pro-Japanese sentiment among Americans.

Commander Boutakoff said to a reporter:

"Those who believe that the reported Japanese successes in the far East will discourage my countrymen know little of the Russian character and temperament. Each disaster, each result of surprise, will only serve to arouse the patriotism of Russia. The whole empire is afire now with the sentiment for war, and demonstrations unexpected and spontaneous, all over the land, show what the people of Russia feel."

"The reported disasters which followed the firing upon the Russian ships as they lay peacefully anchored in the harbor of Port Arthur served to bring the war home to the heart of every Russian. Wait—wait for the real accounts of these engagements, and then

RUSSIA

Will be Surprised Say Japs

When Real Attack on Port Arthur Comes

RUSSIANS REPORT THAT CITY IS NOW TRANQUIL.

JAP BASE AT ELLIOTT ISLANDS

Tends to Confirm Belief That Mikado is Preparing for a Well Planned Attack on Port Arthur.

Chifu, China, Feb. 18.—The Japanese plan it is ascertained, is to continue to harass Port Arthur from the sea, until they are ready to begin the land campaign. The Japanese say the attacks thus far have been merely skirmishes though they have proved unexpectedly successful. The Russians will be surprised when the real attack comes.

THE CITY IS TRANQUIL.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—Major General Plig, chief of staff at Port Arthur reports that the city is tranquil, and that the situation is unchanged. He also reports that the Yalu district is peaceful and that none of the enemy can be found within forty miles of the Russian encampment.

A JAPANESE BASE.

Rome, Feb. 18.—The Russian embassy here is authority for the statement that the Japanese fleet has established a base of supplies at Elliott Islands, off the coast of Liao Tung peninsula, about 75 miles northeast of Port Arthur. The establishment of a base at Elliott Islands would tend to confirm the belief that Japan is preparing for a well planned attack on Port Arthur and an advance through Manchuria cutting off communication between Russia and the lower part of the peninsula.

A quart of oysters contains about the same nutrition as a quart of milk, three-quarters of a pound of lean beef, two pounds of fresh cod or a pound of bread.

INSURED

His Life Monday, Was Married Tuesday and Shot Himself on Wednesday

Erie, Pa., Feb. 18.—Martin Beck, of 53 Chestnut street, took out a two thousand dollar life insurance policy Monday. Tuesday he married Pauline Rosenthal, and Wednesday he drank a vial of chloroform and shot himself with a heavy revolver. He is now at Hamoth hospital where the surgeons think he will die Thursday.

Beck secured a new carpet, which had not been laid, and brought it into the dining room. Spreading it out on the floor, he crawled under it, then drank the chloroform and fired two bullets into his breast near the heart.

A few minutes later Mrs. Beck returned, and, hearing screams, went into the dining room and raised the carpet. The terrible sight that met her eyes made her faint. As soon as she revived she called in neighbors, who summoned the ambulance. When asked why he did the deed, Beck said: "Just for fun." Asked how he felt, he replied, "With my fingers."

AT CLEVELAND

BODY OF SENATOR HANNA LIES IN STATE.

Remains Arrived from Washington at Noon—Burial Takes Place on Friday.

Cleveland, Feb. 18.—The body of Senator Hanna reached Cleveland at noon today, and was taken from the train at the Euclid avenue station. All along the railway route, through the night and early morning at the stations silent crowds stood to pay tribute to the dead. The body lay in the last car of the train on a high bier surrounded by flowers, escorted by mounted police, the Governor's staff and the famous Troop A, of Black Horse cavalry. The body was taken down Euclid avenue to the public square and Chamber of Commerce. The route of two miles was packed with people, many of whom stood bare headed in the bitter cold as the funeral cortege passed. At the Chamber of Commerce hall, the body was placed on the bier which had been used at the McKinley funeral in Canton. The doors were opened at 2 o'clock to the public and it was estimated that 10,000 people viewed the remains during the first hour. The body will lie in state till 7 o'clock tonight when the doors will be closed.

AN EXECUTIVE ORDER

Washington, Feb. 18.—The President today issued the following executive order: "As a mark of respect to the memory of Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, late Senator of the United States from the State of Ohio, it is hereby ordered that all federal offices in Ohio be closed during the hours of the funeral tomorrow, Feb. 14. (Signed.)

THREE

Railway Stations Broken Open and One Safe Robbed.

Sharon, Pa., Feb. 18.—Burglars robbed three railway stations last night and dynamited a safe and escaped with about $200. The Pennsylvania station at West Middlesex was entered and the safe was blown open. All the money was taken as well as several express packages. The Erie railroad station in the same town was entered and the safe forced open. A small amount of money was stolen. The Pennsylvania railroad station at Lakeland was visited, but the safe could not be opened. There is no clue.

Gen. Allen Appointed.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Henry T. Allen, brigadier general of the Philippine constabulary, has been appointed military attaché of the United States legation at Seoul. General Allen holds a commission as captain of cavalry in the regular army. He is from Kentucky.

THREE RECEIVERS

Named for as Many Baltimore Fire Insurance Companies---Expert Underwriters Will Examine Buildings Supposed to Have Been Fireproof.

Baltimore, Feb. 18.—Application has been made for the appointment of a receiver for the Old Town Fire Insurance company of Baltimore. The bill of complaint alleges that the company is insolvent and unable to pay the claims against it, by reason of the fire. The company is said to have assets of $124,970 and liabilities of $254,970.

Receiver Richard B. Post of the Teabody Fire Insurance company of Baltimore, announced that the company will pay policy holders in the burned district 40 cents on the dollar. The policies of this company not affected by the fire have been taken over by an out-of-town company.

G. Harlan Williams, President of the Home Fire Insurance company of Baltimore, was appointed receiver for that company and gave bond in the sum of $450,000.

A. E. S. Wolfe, President of the Firemen's Insurance company of Baltimore, was appointed receiver for that company, and was bonded for $300,000, indicating liabilities of $400,000. Applications had previously been made for receivers for both companies.

As indicating that the situation in Baltimore is easing the civil and military authorities expressed the opinion that it will be safe to withdraw all the troops from the burned district at the end of another week. Another significant indication is the announcement that the issuance of permits to rebuild on streets that are not to be widened will begin within two or three days.

A committee composed of nine members of the National Board of Underwriters is here to prepare an exhaustive report on the conditions of alleged fireproof buildings after the fire and to make recommendations as to those who propose to rebuild. It is agreed by these experts that the most advanced ideas of fireproof construction have undergone their first real test in the Baltimore fire, and the purpose of the present investigation is to make the most of the lesson. All the insurance experts here say that the data to be gleaned from the recent conflagration here will compensate in a measure for the loss sustained, and they are making extensive preparations to study the effect that they had on what was supposed to be absolute fireproof construction and to draw valuable deductions.

The work of clearing the streets in the burned district was completed yesterday and the rest of the week the gang of street cleaners will follow up the work of throwing walls and buildings.

REVOLT AGAINST SULTAN.

Albanians Have Besieged a Force of 2,500--War Cloud Hangs Over Balkans--Turks Said to Be Without Food and Water.

Constantinople, Feb. 18.—Sixteen thousand Albanians are in revolt in the district of Diakova against the reform plans of the Powers for Macedonia, and obnoxious taxes. In conflicts which have taken place between Albanians and Ottoman troops the latter were worsted. Large reinforcements have been dispatched to Diakova. The Albanians attacked the town of Diakova February 17 and plundered and burned a number of houses. Turkish forces thereby attacked the insurgents' main position at Babajoshi, but were repulsed with heavy loss. Feverish activity continues among the Turkish authorities on the Bulgarian frontier in accumulating stores and repairing roads for the expected massing of troops.

BESIEGED

Are the Turkish Troops by an Army of 20,000 Albanians.

Salonica, Macedonia, Feb. 18.—Shemsi Pasha, with 2,500 Turkish troops and three guns, is reported to be besieged by 20,000 Albanians at Babajoshi, between Diakova and Ipek. The Turks are said to be without food and water and to have already lost 100 men. Strong reinforcements under Shakin Pasha are hurrying to the relief of Shemsi Pasha.

CERTAIN

SEEMS THE TURKO-BULGARIAN WAR.

Albanian Rebellion Against Pro-Christian Reforms May be Quelled by Bulgarian War.

London, Feb. 18.—Diplomatic circles in London believe that a Turkish-Bulgarian war is almost certain in the spring. A member of one of the interested embassies said to your correspondent today: "The most disquieting feature is the fact that only diplomatic pressure can be brought to bear to restrain the antagonists. Neither Austria nor Russia would use force to prevent such a war. Turkey and Bulgaria both understand this, and they are now carrying their own desires, which are rapidly reaching toward a war."

"Turkey is now unable to rely on the support of Greece for the pro-Turkish attitude at Athens has so roused unfriendly feeling in Europe that Greece is now changing her attitude toward Bulgaria.

"It would be no cause for surprise, should Turkey assume the initiative at any time, hoping to crush Bulgaria by a sudden blow and thus settle the Balkan situation for many years."

It is pointed out that the Albanian uprising is one of the most dangerous features of the situation. The Albanians, however, are rebelling against the pro-Christian reforms and it is believed they could be quieted by the Sultan discarding the reform scheme and calling on his subjects to rally about the Moslem standard for an attack on Bulgaria. The situation presents strong temptations to the Sultan's advisers, who could thus put down Mohammedan insurrectionary spirit and settle the fate of Bulgaria and Macedonia at a single blow. This restlessness in the Balkans caused a lower tone on the securities market this morning. Japanese fours reacted 1-2 to 68 1-2; Japanese fives declined to 59; Russian fours 3-4 per cent and Chinese and Turkish issues were 1-2 lower.

DARTMOUTH HALL

OLDEST COLLEGE BUILDING IN AMERICA, BURNS.

Students Had Narrow Escape—Many Lost Everything—Hall to be Rebuilt on Old Lines.

Hampeter N. H., Feb. 18.—Dartmouth Hall built in 1768, the oldest of the Dartmouth buildings and the oldest college hall in America, was burned this morning. Many of the students had narrow escapes and nearly all who remained in the upper story of the building lost everything. The hall will be rebuilt on the old lines as nearly as possible.

A number of Newark men during their college days roomed in the famous old building. Among them may be mentioned Willis A. Robbins, Dr. Chas. A. Hatch, Fred S. Wright, Geo. B. Sprague, Thos. H. Montgomery, Henry B. Woolbridge, Chas. H. Follett, Levi Montgomery and the late Clark Barrows and Charles Montgomery deceased.

VISCOUNT KATSURA, THE "WASHINGTON OF JAPAN."

General Viscount Katsura, prime minister of Japan, has often been called the George Washington of his country. In 1867 he helped to overthrow the old order in Japan, and he has been a conspicuous factor in modernizing the Land of the Rising Sun. He was one of the heroes of the China-Japan war and has been premier two years.

THE RAILWAYS

B. & O. WILL NOT DESERT CITY OF BALTIMORE.

Callers Arranging for a Dance Easter Monday.—G. S. White Hurt—Col. Wilder to Retire.

Baltimore, Feb. 18.—President Oscar G. Murray of the B. & O. railroad has made an emphatic denial of the report, published in other cities, that the general offices of the road would be removed, in whole or in part, to another city. President Murray said:

"There is not a word of truth in this report. We shall stay right here, where we are at home and among devoted friends.

"You may add that contrary to report, the terminals of the company are uninjured by the fire. They were not touched. Our loss was on the central building and one some smaller warehouse property, the whole not exceeding $300,000, which is covered by insurance.

Callers' Dance.

The B. & O. callers are making arrangements for a big dance to be held at Brennan's hall on Easter Monday night, April 4. Marsh's orchestra, consisting of seven pieces, will furnish the music for the occasion. The committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. George Floyd W. Millbaugh, Joe Duhlin and J. Wooley.

C. S. White Injured.

C. S. White, who on February 12 was appointed acting assistant road foreman of engines of the Pittsburg division of the Pan Handle to succeed John Roach, deceased, was severely injured in the wreck of No. 18 at Carnegie Tuesday. Mr. White was riding in the cab of the engine when No. 18 collided with the freight train. He received severe scalp wounds and is thought to be internally injured.

Col. D. S. Wilder

Colonel D. S. Wilder, district passenger agent of the B. & O. has said many times that he would retire from active railroad service when he became 60 years of age. He will be 60 years of age August 25, this year, and it is expected that he will make good his statement. When asked about the matter Tuesday Colonel Wilder said that he would have to talk it over with D. B. Martin, passenger traffic manager of the company, before making up his mind definitely.

Colonel Wilder is the pioneer passenger man of Columbus. He went there 16 years ago as district passenger agent of the Big Four. Mr. Martin was at that time general passenger agent of the Big Four and he and the Colonel have been associated in the business ever since. When Mr. Martin went to the B. & O. in 1897 he offered Mr. Wilder the position he now holds.

If Colonel Wilder does not retire on the above date it is expected that he will retire as soon after as a suitable man to succeed him can be secured.

Penny and the Goulds.

New York, Feb. 18.—A prominent banker who has done much in financing the recent Pennsylvania loans, is the authority for the statement today that all negotiations for a settlement of the differences between the Pennsylvania and Gould interests have been broken off and that no further attempts will be made by friends to obtain a rapprochement between A. J. Cassatt and George Gould. The end of peace negotiations came when it was ascertained that the Gould interests absolutely refused to abandon their project of reaching the Atlantic by an outlet of their own. The proposition of settlement was based on the idea that the Western Maryland, the road over which the Wabash was to get into Baltimore, could be placed under the control of some other road in which both the Pennsylvania and Wabash could have an equal interest. For this purpose the Norfolk and Western had been selected as the most likely. From the very beginning of the negotiations, the Gould interests balked at this proposition, but it was believed that their objections could be overcome. When negotiations had been going on for some weeks Joseph Ramsey Jr., president of the Wabash, expressed himself to a friend to the effect that "he could see himself give up the Western Maryland."

Rebuilding Baltimore.

C. S. Wright, freight traffic manager of the B. & O. has issued circulars to all the freight agents of the system, requesting the quick delivery of building material to Baltimore in order to hasten the work of rebuilding the burned district.

IN NEWARK

Every Claim Is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Newark, what can it be

T. Henderson, No. 489 Baltimore street, says:

"I can only say that after giving Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, they showed themselves to be all that was claimed for them. I had a good deal of pain over my kidneys. If I contracted a cold, no matter how slight, it always affected them first, and as the result, my back grew worse, being so painful sometimes that it was all I could do to straighten up. The urine was of a bad odor and color—evidence that the kidneys were not altogether right. After I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store, all this trouble was corrected. The kidneys passed away the impurities and my back was strong and free from pain."

BECOMING A MOTHER
Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. The Senatorial Fight.

The fight is on in Columbus for Hanna's Senatorial seat in dead earnest, though the funeral ceremony of the late Senator has not yet been pronounced. Of course a number of the twelve applicants for the place will soon be dropped from serious consideration. What is known as the organization is lining up for General Dick and predictions are freely made that he will have a larger number of votes than any other candidate when the Republican caucus meets. The candidacy of Congressman Burton, of Cleveland, interferes with that of Governor Herrick, and one or the other will be compelled to withdraw. Cox has the Hamilton county delegation and Burton the Cuyahoga delegation. But the "organization" is awful busy for Dick. He evidently commands the bulk of the old Hanna machine.

One of the Republican leaders in the Legislature says that the party just now is greatly in need of a Quay to manage the organization in Ohio. The author, if this statement is a boomer for Boss Cox for Senator to succeed Hanna.

The German ambassador to the United States thinks the friendship of the German and the American peoples should be immensely strengthened because Emperor Wilhelm and President Roosevelt are men of the same temperament. The American people have been observing that our President has become a great imitator of the German Kaiser, but that fact of itself has little influence in creating friendship between the peoples of the two nations. A much more enduring basis of amity might be found in the natural respect and regard of these two peoples for each other. The fact is that Roosevelt's efforts to imitate the pomp of monarchy is well calculated to increase the characteristic American disgust for it.

A NEW BALTIMORE.

Baltimore is rising from the embers in a most heroic and successful manner. The losses are less than anticipated. The insurance companies are giving a good lift by paying their clients a large part of their losses amounting to a total of about $95,000,000. Some of the companies are not even waiting for a complete settlement of minor details.

Plans for a new Baltimore are now under way and will make it one of the finest cities in the world for handling a larger business and doing a greater business with the world at large.

Baltimore is a great business center and a fine city. That she has taken a new hold on life as is now shown, proves that Baltimore, her business men and her people are made of the right kind of stuff.

GRAYTON'S DRUG STORE

A CONVERTED ANARCHIST

[Original.]
The man who told me this story is dead or I could not tell it without almost surely occasioning his death:
"I was a poor man, though I belonged to a good family and had been well educated. At college I imbibed revolutionary, not to say communistic, doctrines which influenced me, but not seriously, until on coming out of the university I lost my father and the assistance he had given me; then, facing the world with no means, I was drawn to embrace anarchism. There was no excuse for me. I was young, and the world was before me. I was one of the impractical, theorizing kind who prefer trying to revolutionize natural laws rather than work. Added to this, I had the faculty of inspiring others. I joined a band of anarchists and became a leader among them.
"My mother had a brother of whom I had never heard. He was considered the black sheep of the family and was never spoken of to me, the only child of his only sister. He had run away as a boy and had broken his mother's heart by never writing a line. Up to the time I became an anarchist he had never been heard from. Judge of my surprise one day to learn through solicitors that this uncle had died in South America and left a fortune of $850,000 to me.
"How quickly my theories of the world's wrongs vanished! I did not dare to break my connection with anarchists, but gradually ceased to attend meetings. One day I was horrified at receiving an order to assassinate one of the crowned heads of Europe. I knew well that should I refuse I would be myself assassinated. One advantage I would have in disobeying the order—I was rich and could isolate myself from any one who might attempt to kill me. I turned my fortune into gold and disappeared. A few weeks later I turned up in one of the southern states. My hair, which had been a light brown, was black. My beard, which had been but a few tufts, was now luxuriant. My name was changed. Indeed, as little of my old self remained as I could help. I bought a small plantation and pretended to raise cotton. In its center was my house, and no one could reach me without passing a number of my employees, whose duty it was to keep off an enemy.
"I lived for several years without hearing from my old associates, but this only assured me that at the outset I had eluded them. I knew that I had been condemned and some one had been appointed to kill me. The only question was, Would my executioner tire of the work or be withdrawn for lack of funds or other causes?
"One day I noticed that a new candy store had been opened in the village. I went inside and looked over the stock. It was very meager, and I bought nothing. A young woman who stood behind the counter looked disappointed and asked me to give an order for anything I liked and she would execute it. I am fond of chocolate and told her to make me some chocolate creams. She promised to have them ready the next day and send them to me. Instead of sending she brought them. When she was announced I told my guards to admit her. She was a very attractive looking person, and I did not desire to keep her away. She asked me to try her chocolates and tell her wherein they did not please me. I ate a few of them and pronounced them excellent. That seemed to satisfy her, and she left at once, though I would have been glad to have her remain longer.
"In a week I went by the candy shop, stopped and gave her an order for some more chocolates. She told me that she knew of a new kind that she was sure I had never eaten. I gave her an order for some of them, telling her that I would not put her to the trouble of sending them, but would call for them. I did so, but they were not ready. I called again, but still they had not been made. The woman told me that certain ingredients were required, for which she had been obliged to send to the city. She would bring them when they were ready.
"Meanwhile I never relaxed my vigilance in keeping any suspicious person from my house, and both there and when I went out I was secretly armed to the teeth.
"One day the candy woman was announced, and I ordered her to be admitted. She handed me the box of chocolates, and while I tried them she amused herself with an Italian greyhound I had always with me. The dog was lying on a rug at the other end of the room, and she went over to him and patted him. On opening the box I found the chocolates in layers of four large, flat squares. I ate two and found them delicious. The third I threw to the dog, who caught it in his teeth and swallowed it. I noticed that the woman turned pale. I was about to eat the fourth when I saw the dog looking at it longingly. I tossed it to him. As I did so the woman gave a shriek. The dog caught it, as before. There was an explosion, and his head was spattered over the room.
"The secret was out. The woman had been commissioned to murder me! She was knocked senseless by the explosion. I was unhurt.
"An arrangement was made between the ex-anarchist and the woman. She wrote that she had killed her man. A coffin full of stones was buried, and the man was never again seen on his plantation. Then a notice was published of the woman's death—caused by wounds—which she managed to have reach an anarchist circle. The two lived together as man and wife till the husband's death a few years ago.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN.

The pacer Cubanola, 2:06 1/4, is on the market. Brook Curry has leased the stallion San Mateo, 2:13 1/4, for the season. It is reported that Louise G., 2:08 1/4, pacing, will be shifted to the trot. J. H. Thayer will, as usual, train a small stable this year, but it will be very select.

G. F. Brant of East Liverpool, O., has bought the veteran gray trotting gelding Success, 2:11 1/4, by Sherman. A. W. McElroy will be seen in the starters' stand the coming season. He has already booked several good meetings.

The Judge, 2:12 1/4, by Bellini, 2:13 1/4, is being toured as one of the coming pacers. He won well on the half mile tracks last year.

Charlie Dean will train Walter Palmer's much talked about colt Chimer. This probably means that Palmer will drive no more races.

Scott McCoy is located at the Douglas park track, Louisville, Ky., with fifteen head of horses and young stock owned by Gullvalis farm.

FOREIGN FACTS.

There are 147 children born in Germany to every 13 in France and every 116 in Great Britain. The Spanish cabinet has decided to undertake important works at the fortresses of Melilla and Ceuta.

The metric system has been adopted by the parliament of New Zealand. It is to go into effect in three years. Denmark has reason to be proud of her system of education. The number of people who cannot read or write is less than 1 per cent.

Servia is only thirty-six hours by rail from Paris. One can get there without changing trains, but it is still in the middle ages stage of development. Venice has 493 bridges for crossing the canals. A recent project for a new bridge to connect the city with Mestre was not approved by the authorities partly on artistic grounds.

Wages in northern Italy are: Laborers, 40 to 50 cents; bricklayers, 80 cents to $1; stonecutters and carpenters, 60 to 70 cents; painters and frescoers, 40 to 50 cents; experts, 60 to 75 cents a day.

They Bound the Wrong Leg.

A man in North Waldoboro, Me., while cutting wood recently had the misfortune to cut a deep gash in his leg, which, owing to a very peculiar mistake, came near being much more serious than the circumstances would warrant, says the Kennebec Journal. His leg was corded, and he was taken to Waldoboro village, a distance of six or seven miles, for surgical treatment. Upon arrival there the injured man was found to be at death's door from the loss of blood, and it was then discovered that the cord had been tied around the wrong leg. He is now recovering.

Several things passed rapidly through the prospector's mind—first and foremost, that he would be blown to atoms; secondly, that a bona fide death would render a sham one necessary; thirdly, that if he escaped being killed a gunpowder sham death would sound more probable than a drowning one; at any rate it would be more original. These three transitions of thought occupied one second—a second of inaction—the next he was on his feet and in two or three more seconds distance from his haversack kneeling behind a big stone.

He was none too soon. There was an explosion that threw him on his back, and he lay for awhile stunned. Then he stood up and viewed a great hole where the explosion had taken place. "Now," he said lugubriously, "I've got to the bottom of my luck. Ten pounds of good blasting powder, a ragged haversack and a first rate magnifying glass gone up in smoke. Well, it's better to be at the bottom than the top; at the top you're sure to fall, at the bottom you can only rise."

AT THE BOTTOM OF HIS LUCK

[Original.]
Out in the golden state of Colorado a prospector sat alone in the shade of a tree reading a letter. His clothes were in tatters, his shoes were minus the principal part of their soles, and of his felt hat there was little left but the brim. He had thrown off his haversack and laid it on the grass beside him. It contained no food, for he had eaten the last morsel that morning for breakfast. But it did contain all the prospector possessed in the world—ten pounds of gunpowder and a magnifying glass. The former he kept to turn up ground, wherein he hoped gold might be hidden, the latter to examine specimens of ore.

This was the letter he read:
Dear Ted—I have had no word from you since your letter a month ago, which was full of despondency. I hope you have done nothing rash. You say Colorado is full of sink holes commemorating blighted hopes. You must remember that there are a few holes commemorative of the realization of wild dreams. There is an old saying, "When you have put your hand to the plow never look back." I am sorry that you felt constrained to undertake a line of work with so great an element of luck in it; but, since you have, stick to what you have undertaken. Don't despair till you have hunted all over the state. Remember that prizes go to the few. The commonplace goes to the many. I have agreed to cast my lot with you, consequently I narrate of your condition. I may not have been wise in doing so, but I have "put my hand to the plow, and I'll never look back." Your loving

LUCY.

The young man folded the letter and put it in his pocket. "The mistake was in the beginning," he mused. "The old man wouldn't consent to an engagement on my going to work in the regular way because, he said, I would slave all my life, and if success came it would not come for many years. Meanwhile his daughter would be growing old. I resolved to stake all in trying to make money in a hurry, and have lost. But what a splendid indication of character there is in her letter! I have no right to keep her tied down to my hard luck till her beauty is gone, and men, after all, are attracted by beauty and sentiment. There is good stuff in Lucy, and she will make some man a treasure of a wife. Because I can't have her shall I deny her to another? Shall I be a dog in a manger? No. I have resolved what to do, and I'll do it. My clothes shall be found by the river bank. Then, when she gets the news, she'll think of some one else, and there's plenty of them waiting her."

His eye lighting on a bit of earth which looked as if it might contain gold, he took his magnifying glass from his haversack and mechanically examined the specimen, meeting with the usual disappointment. It contained gold, but not in paying quantity. With a sigh he hooked the handle of his magnifying glass on to a twig that lay without the shade to watch, as he had often done before, the concentrated rays of the sun move slowly along the surface of the ground. The strong light illumined the soil, revealing small particles of gold. The sun moved slowly, and the prospector was tired and discouraged. He fell asleep.

He was awakened by the smell of burning cloth. His first act was to clap his hand to his pocket, thinking that he might have placed his pipe, lighted, in it. The pipe was there, but cold. Next, he looked about him. On his haversack was a round spot of bright light cast from the sun through the magnifying glass, and a thin film of smoke indicated that the haversack was burning. Then he remembered the gunpowder.

Several things passed rapidly through the prospector's mind—first and foremost, that he would be blown to atoms; secondly, that a bona fide death would render a sham one necessary; thirdly, that if he escaped being killed a gunpowder sham death would sound more probable than a drowning one; at any rate it would be more original. These three transitions of thought occupied one second—a second of inaction—the next he was on his feet and in two or three more seconds distance from his haversack kneeling behind a big stone.

He was none too soon. There was an explosion that threw him on his back, and he lay for awhile stunned. Then he stood up and viewed a great hole where the explosion had taken place. "Now," he said lugubriously, "I've got to the bottom of my luck. Ten pounds of good blasting powder, a ragged haversack and a first rate magnifying glass gone up in smoke. Well, it's better to be at the bottom than the top; at the top you're sure to fall, at the bottom you can only rise."

The force of habit led him to examine the hole. Taking up a piece of quartz that had been blown out of it he looked it over. It was a mixture of pure gold and rock in proportions of about half and half. The moment he saw what it was a light of gladness shone in his face. He was transfigured. Then he began to kick dirt and dry leaves into the hole, not stopping till he had covered it. After this he went to the tree under which he had lain and carved his initials, looking carefully about him and taking note of his surroundings. His next move was to wrap his nugget in his ragged coat, and, having taken care of everything, he set off to a town ten miles distant, whence he sent the good news to Lucy. The girl laid the matter before her father, who had some means, and he took the first train for Colorado. Together he and the prospector bought the property on which the discovery had been made, then went east and organized a company to work it.

Such is the origin of the famous "Bottom Luck" mine, one of the richest in the Owl creek district.

KING DRAMATIC CO.

Yesterday at the matinee David Conger appeared in a dramatic novel written and played by himself, and the success he met with was well earned for it is not easy matter for one person to hold an audience alone for a matter of fifteen minutes and keep them entertained as he did.

The act concerns a young bachelor who is preparing to receive and dine in his private apartments his friend's wife. The scene is devoted nearly all to light comedy of a very high order, but at the appointed time when the lady should arrive a message is brought stating that on the way she was thrown from her carriage and killed. This furnishes an opportunity for a bit of serious work that for originality and finished work we have seldom seen the equal of on our local stage, and the applause as the curtain fell showed that the author's work was appreciated.

In this comedy Mr. Conger has the faintest and surest touch, and in the strong situation at the finish he carries his audience with him irresistibly. Tonight's bill by the King company is "Carmen."

The King dramatic company again pleased a good sized audience at the Auditorium Wednesday evening, the

The funeral was under the auspices of Minnewa Tribe, No. 51, Red Men, of this city, and the members of the old 76th regiment, of which he was a member, and old soldiers generally, turned out in large numbers. The interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

David R. Jones at the age of 31 years enlisted as a private in Co. G, 76th O. V. I., at Newark, Ohio, under Captain James Stewart, on October 18, 1861. He was detailed as a musician (fifer). He served three years, and at the expiration of his term of service re-enlisted as at veteran at Woodville, Ala., in January, 1864, and served until the close of the war, when he was mustered out of the service at Louisville, Ky., on July 15, and discharged at Camp Chase, Columbus, July 17, 1865. He was mustered into the Union Veteran Legion No. 31 at Newark, O., on July 28, 1883.

DEATH

Of G. T. Foresman Occurred in Columbus Shortly After His Wedding Ceremony.

George Thompson Foresman, son of the late Senator Charles Foresman of Fairfield county, died at Smith's hotel in Columbus, Wednesday afternoon. Less than 24 hours before his death Mr. Foresman was married to Miss Minnie Bell Ashbrook in the hotel in which he died.

Death was due to heart trouble in connection with pneumonia. The wedding was to have occurred in March, but owing to the bridegroom's becoming dangerously ill it was decided to perform the ceremony Monday. During the ceremony Mr. Foresman had to be propped up in bed.

The deceased was well known in Newark, having made many visits here.

ANALYSIS

OF NEWARK WATER IS MADE BY CHEMIST HORTON

Water is Usable, but Has Some Undesirable Features—What the Chemist Has to Report.

Following is the report of E. A. Horton, bacteriologist and chemist, who has finished his analysis of a sample of the city water of Newark:

This sample was received from Dr. Henry Day, health officer, and was analyzed in compliance with the request of the Newark Board of Health. The sample was collected by Dr. Day and represented the water from the reservoir and two wells.

On account of the sample being a mixed one and containing surface and ground water, it is quite probable that a portion of the nitrites result from that mixture, and therefore have less significance than would otherwise obtain. The chlorides and nitrites are so low as to preclude any serious amount of sewage influence. The undesirable features aside from the nitrites are the turbidity, a little vegetable organic matter and the bacteria. It is quite probable that these are due to the admittance of surface water. The turbidity is rather low, but the number of bacteria is high, and the presence of intestinal bacteria even so sparingly as in 50 cubic centimeter portions is not desirable in a public supply. It appears from the analysis as a whole that this water is a usable one, with some undesirable features, and it is quite likely that these undesirable factors are at times less in evidence than at the time of sampling.

The water is relatively a soft water for Ohio, but it is to be noted that it is not free from scale forming material as shown by the finding for incrusting constituents. With the undesirable features absent or less in evidence this water would be quite acceptable.

Respectfully submitted,
E. G. HORTON,
Bacteriologist and Chemist.

LENT HAS BEGUN

LOCAL CHURCHES OBSERVE THE FIRST DAY OF LENT.

Self Denial Will be the Watchword in Many Christian Homes Until Easter.

The Lenten season was ushered in with Ash Wednesday services in the Catholic Episcopal and St. Paul's Lutheran churches, and until Easter, the first Sunday in April, self denial will be the watchword in many Christian homes.

At Trinity Episcopal church Ash Wednesday, or the beginning of Lent, there was Holy Communion at 7 a. m., morning prayer meeting at 10 a. m., Holy Communion at 10:30 a. m., when the pastor delivered a short talk on "How to Keep Lent." Evening prayer was held at 7:30 o'clock, when there was a short sermon. During Lent there will be two services, 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. daily. Every Wednesday and Friday there will be Holy Communion. Wednesdays at 9 a. m. and Fridays at 7 a. m. with evening prayer at 7:30, and on other days at 4.

The regular services will be held every Sunday, and during Holy Week there will be Holy Communion every day except Friday and Saturday, Monday and Tuesday at 7 a. m., Wednesday at 9 a. m. and Thursday at 7 and 10:30 a. m.

On Good Friday services will be held at 9 a. m., followed by the three hour devotion from 12 to 3 p. m. and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. On Saturday, Easter eve, there will be baptism at 4 p. m.

At St. Paul's Lutheran church on Wednesday two services were held, one at 10 a. m., the sermon being delivered by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Schindel, who also delivered a lecture in the evening. A Lenten address has been issued to the congregation of St. Paul's church and the Holy Trinity church by the pastors, Revs. Schindel and Spaid.

During Passion Week there will be services each day, and Holy Communion will be celebrated on Good Friday and Easter.

ORIGIN OF LENT.

According to the authorities, the Christian Lent probably took its rise from the Jewish preparations for their yearly expiation. Hebrews began their solemn humiliation forty days before expiation. The primitive Christians, following their example, set up this fast at the beginning of Christianity as a proper preparation for the commemoration of the great expiation of the sins of the whole world. The number of fast days, forty, seems to have been fixed in imitation of the Saviour's fast as related in the New Testament. The church appoints that all Christians who receive the holy communion at Easter, shall prepare themselves by fasting and praying.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

Ash Wednesday is so called from the custom in the primitive church of sprinkling ashes on this day on the heads of notorious offenders, who were excommunicated.

VISITORS

COME TO WITNESS WORK IN CEDAR CAMP

Over 300 Members Attended Meeting Wednesday Night When Seventeen Were Initiated.

As the membership of Cedar Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, nears the 1000 mark the members seem to catch the inspiration and each one is endeavoring to do his share to secure this number.

Visiting delegations were present on Wednesday night from Steubenville, where District Deputy Chas. E. Baker had gotten up a crowd of 20 members who were certainly enthusiastic, to make the long trip to this city to witness the work of the celebrated team of Cedar Camp. Deputy R. D. Hiatt, of Cambridge, escorted a delegation of 13 from that city, and Neighbors Alward and Hill were present from Denison. A class of 17 candidates were ready for the mysteries of Woodcraft as follows: Wm. Siegl, H. R. Neely, J. H. Southard, H. L. Needham, Frank Richardson, W. W. Whitehead, G. B. Freas, T. A. George, C. D. Gionger, C. H. Wells, J. K. Platto, Jos. Moser, E. B. Zimmerman, J. W. Vadakin, John Brauback, F. A. Prindle and F. T. Maurath.

Neighbor J. C. Russell, a favorite in Cedar Camp, delivered the address of welcome to the visitors and responses were made for the different delegations. All were loud in their praise of Newark's hospitality and good fellowship and the work of the team was a revelation to them. The candidates were all very much interested in the ceremonies and Councilman Joseph Moser is certain he is able to place his finger on the most important points in Woodcraft. There were 234 members present and all were invited to the banquet room where oysters were served, after which many of the members remained to entertain the visitors until the late trains.

Cedar Camp feels honored by the fact that visitors will come such great distances to witness work. On next Wednesday evening, Feb. 24 Cedar Camp will hold its open meeting to Woodmen, their wives and a fine program has been arranged. Let every one turn out.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

(Communicated.)

We sometimes receive inquiries as to the standing of persons who advertise themselves in newspapers and magazines as Christian Science practitioners. We answer these inquiries by saying that Christian Scientists do not advertise, and it is safe to assume that the persons who thus bring themselves to the attention of the public are not in any manner identified with our denomination or with its healing work. The following reference to the methods employed by unauthorized persons who pose as Christian Scientists is copied from a previous issue of the Sentinel:

"It is unnecessary for us to say

Always Remember the Full Name

that methods of advertising akin to those of quack doctors and vendors of patent nostrums are not countenanced by Christian Scientists. On the contrary, they are reprehended.

"Christian Scientists have done all they properly can do in the way of advertising when they unobtrusively make known the fact that they hold themselves in readiness to respond to calls for healing sickness or otherwise aiding those who desire such services as come within their province or line of duty."

"The above is as true today as when it was written, and correctly sets forth the attitude of Christian Scientists as being one of willingness and readiness to help those who desire their ministrations, rather than that of soliciting the attention and patronage of persons who may be attracted by a skillfully worded advertisement.

Christian Science healing is not a thing of barter and sale; it is a holy ministry into which greed, selfishness, and self-seeking cannot enter. The commercialism that bids for patronage and dollars is inconsistent with the true sense of Christ-healing and must ultimately prove to be a delusion to both practitioner and patient. Christian Scientists know that those who would avail themselves of the healing power of this Science must turn to it naturally and without undue influence.

It may be urged that unless Christian Scientists advertise, the public will not know how nor where to find a practitioner, but this will not suffice as an excuse for adopting methods not in keeping with the proper reserve and dignity which befits the high calling of our ministry. Those who are ready for Christian Science will experience no difficulty in finding help and healing. There are but few communities in which some beneficiary of Christian Science cannot be found, the churches of the denomination are many, the free reading rooms maintained by the churches are easily accessible, and a comprehensive directory of practitioners is published in the official organs of the denomination.

Work is to begin immediately on the erection of a large museum in Ottawa, to be called the Victoria National Museum, which is to be the center of literary and scientific work in Canada.

Responding to invitations the ladies wore costumes of "the olden times," of rare old silks and velvets, glittering with jet, and the display of hair ornaments and costly jewelry of quaint design made the ladies look like the picture of the noted ladies they represented. Flinch and music were enjoyed, the spirit prevalent being one of mirth. At 10 o'clock light refreshments were served, consisting of doughnuts, coffee and pickles, punch, cake and cream-fingers. The table was beautifully decorated with carnations and lighted candles, the main features being a cake, with two score and eight tiny candles on it, which was a surprise sprung on the guests, but when told that the next morning, St. Valentine day, was Mrs. Burch's birth anniversary, they soon were counting the candles. CAUGHT FIRE FROM RED-HOT STOVE

And Miss Mamie Gamble, a Shelby County Young Woman, Was Burned to Death.

Shelby, O., Feb. 18.—Miss Mamie Gamble, aged 22, daughter of John Gamble, a rich farmer, was burned to death in a horrible manner. She was engaged in getting breakfast when her clothing caught fire from the hot stove.

The girl lost all presence of mind and started to run through the house, setting the residence on fire at every step. Her father attempted to catch her to smother the flames, but was unsuccessful until her clothing was all burned off and she fell exhausted.

Carrying his daughter from the burning building he then turned his attention to saving the house. The dinner bell brought several neighbors to the assistance and the home was saved. The young lady was so badly burned that she died within an hour.

QUESTION

ARISES AS TO BURIAL PLACE OF SIMON KENTON

One Report Says a Mistake Was Made When the Body Was Removed in 1870.

Bellefontaine, O., Feb. 18.—Mrs. George Corwin, an aged resident of New Jerusalem, declares that the body of Josephus Prater was moved to the Urbana graveyard at the time it was thought that the body of Kenton was being removed. This fact, she says, was the result of there being no marker to distinguish the grave of Prater from that of Kenton. The death of Simon Kenton occurred about 1820, and the body supposed to be his was moved to Urbana a half century later from New Jerusalem.

Urbana, O., Feb. 18.—The rumor that the body, brought to this city from Logan county in 1865, and supposed to be the body of Simon Kenton, the famous frontiersman and Indian fighter, is not that of Kenton at all, but of one Joseph Prater, is denied by J. K. Cheatham, of this city, who is a grandson of the old fighter, and who says that there can possibly be no mistake, as the commission knew just where Kenton was buried in Logan county.

JACKSONTOWN

Wins and Johnstown Loses in the Debate Between Public School Pupils.

The debating contest between the representatives of the Jacksontown and Johnstown High schools held at the opera house, proved a most interesting and pleasing entertainment for all who attended, says the Johnstown Independent. The question, "Resolved, That the American people accomplished more by gaining their independence than by suppressing the Rebellion," was affirmed by the Jacksontown speakers, Foraker Hatten and Clendon Hisey and denied by the Jacksontown representatives, Stanley Crow and Owen Osburn. Guy Green who was on the program as one of the debaters for Johnstown was unable to be present on account of sickness, his place being taken by Mr. Hisey. The arguments submitted were forcible and displayed a close analysis of the question. The possession of a marked ability in oratory was observed in each debater, and the thorough knowledge of the intricacies of debating manifest in each address proved that no one of the speakers intended to lose in an unguarded moment any points which had been gained. The judges were Rev. Rogers of Hebron, Prof. C. W. Gunion of Appleton, and Rev. W. I. Todd of Johnstown. Fred D. Baker acted as chairman. The decision by the judges was rendered in favor of the negative. 22.5 scores having been scored for Johnstown and 32.6 for Jacksontown. The program rendered by the pupils of the schools preliminary to the debate was much enjoyed by all. All expenses having been paid the receipts of the evening netted the school library fund about $5.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil made almost as palatable as milk. It is easy and soothing to the weak stomach; it checks the tendencies of children toward thinness.

Scott's Emulsion gives strength to weak mothers because it creates healthy flesh and new blood.

Nursing mothers will find a special value in Scott's Emulsion because it insures a flow of rich, nourishing milk for the baby. More and better than a medicine; Scott's Emulsion is a food.

Scott's Emulsion is not a mere extract, containing imaginary "active principles" which do not exist, but is full of actual nourishment which sustains vital force and builds up the body tissues more rapidly than any other known remedy.

LECTURE

ON RADIUM, LIQUID AIR AND WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY

At Taylor Hall February 29. Will be Well Illustrated—A School Library Benefit.

As our High school stands for higher education, so it is most fitting that the forthcoming lecture with experiments by Prof. W. B. Patty on Radium, Wireless Telegraphy and Liquid Air, should be under its auspices and for its benefit, the profits going to its library fund. It is an expensive lecture, hence the price for each reserved seat has to be 75 cents. A good many seats have already been ordered, but plenty more are yet available. Send word to Mr. Townsend or Mr. Childs, or by any of the teachers or pupils, and tickets will be delivered to you. Beginning on Wednesday morning, the 24th, these tickets can be marked for reserved seats at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. This will be a rare, and perhaps for a time, the only opportunity to see and understand fully and plainly these newest and greatest scientific marvels, in which the whole civilized world is profoundly interested. The date of the lecture at Taylor Hall is Saturday night, February 27.

In this connection the following dispatch from Ann Arbor, Mich., will be of interest:

BUILDING IN NEWARK.

Contractors Expect a Busy Season--Outlook Ahead Of Previous Records--Structures Over Feeder To go Up at Once.

Contractor Alva Wilcox will in the immediate future begin the construction of the new buildings on the land under lease by him and Attorney Charles W. Miller, fronting on both sides of East Main street, where the old feeder now runs. These gentlemen have a fifteen year lease on this land and buildings will be constructed over the old feeder bed.

The chief engineer of the Board of Public Works, Mr. Charles E. Perkins, was in Newark this week and gave the stakes and other measurements of the Miller-Wilcox lease, and the material has been ordered and is expected to be on the ground very soon now.

The building on the north side of Main street will be a two story structure, 52 1-2 by 120 feet and will include an armory for Company G on the second floor, while the front part of the first floor will be taken up with three store rooms, the rear being a large store room. The building on the south side of Main street will also be two stories high 45 by 60 feet. There will be two store rooms on the ground floor and two flats up stairs.

sibility of using radium to convert ordinary rain and well water into a mineral water more highly medicinal than any known natural mineral water has been demonstrated at the University of Michigan in a series of experiments covering the last ten weeks. Dr. Rollin H. Stevens has hit upon the idea of immersing a radium tube in water, tightly closed in glass bottles. He was looking for a method by which radium could be applied to the interior of a cancer without any danger of the terrible radium or X-ray burns. By leaving a sealed tube in pure, distilled water for twenty-four hours he produced radio-active water of powerful effects, as his tests immediately proved.

Injected into cancers this water stopped pain in ten minutes. Other patients now under the radium water treatment include one with a cancer of 18 years' standing and some of the ordinary nose and breast cancers. Apparently the water is curing every one of these cancers.

Preached Very Interesting Sermon at Closing Discourse at Plymouth Church.

"I am the vine, ye are the branches." Such was the subject of the closing discourse of a series of very interesting sermons preached at the Plymouth Congregational church by Dr. Waterman of Chicago Wednesday evening. The discourse was a very scholarly and logical presentation of the subject. The doctor has a forcible way of presenting the inspired truth, and what he says always finds a lodgment in the hearts of all his hearers. He has a very pleasing delivery and impresses one with his earnestness, as well as sincerity. In the subject presented space forbids our giving a more extended notice of this admirable discourse. After the sermon the members of the church made some very happy remarks with regard to the great good which had been accomplished during Dr. Waterman's stay in our city. He has evidently sown good seed here which we trust will ripen into a rich harvest in the near future. It has rarely been our good fortune to meet a man who has so many noble traits of Christian character. He is a genial Christian gentleman, and the prayers not only of this church, but also of the entire community will go with him to his new fields of labor, and hope and pray that his life may be spared in his efforts to uplift fallen humanity, and in bringing back the "wandering ones" to the fold of Christ.

The Hydrant.

Do not use bath brick or other gritty substance for cleaning taps, for it will get into the joints and cause needless wear and expense. A good polishing with oil alone will have excellent effect and can do no damage.

The armory is rented and every room in the two buildings, while not yet rented, are spoken for.

In this connection it might be stated that there is now a condition existing where more houses are a necessity. Many men have recently come to the city, and are huddled together in boarding houses, who would move their families here if they could get houses. This is especially true in West Newark in the cases of many molders and Buckeye Lake tralmen.

The contractors of the city say that the outlook for building during the coming season, is ahead of any previous record, and most of them now have work to commence as soon as the season opens, that will be as much as they can handle this year.

According to the report of President J. F. Lamb, of the Board of Public Service, there were 232 building permits issued in 1903, the record having been kept only from May 4. No permit was required before that date, nor after that date for houses begun before May 4, so that he says there were probably 250 buildings put up in Newark during the calendar year 1903.

THE WEATHER

COLDEST WINTER IN MEMORY OF OLDEST INHABITANT.

Man Who Predicted What Has Come to Pass Tells What We May Expect in the Future.

The continuous cold and stormy weather since November 17, 1903, has set the older persons to thinking about what kind of weather they used to have when they were boys. They tell us about the cold winter of 1842-43, when there was excellent sleighing from November to the following April, and also of the winter of 1855-56 when the winter was continuously cold with "knee deep" snow all winter.

The younger element delight in talking about the winter of 1872-73 and 1880-81, and also 1893-94, but none of these latter winters can compare with the present one.

Those persons who are so anxious for spring to "set in," now, can surely find but little consolation in Prof. De Voe's predictions for the present year. In justice to the Professor we must admit his predictions for January and February have been fully vindicated. So we will see what he has in store for us. Here is his March prediction: This will be the great storm month of the year. First to 3rd, snow turning to rain; 7th to 8th rain turning to snow; 9th to 10th, cold wave; 16th blizzard; 18th to 19th, cold wave. His April forecasts are but little better than March; and for May among other things not very consoling says: This month will enter unusually cold; 9th to 10th cold wave; 14th a storm causing cold northerly winds; 21st storm followed by cold wave; 29th a storm causing a cold wave over northern states; and the month will close with cold, cloudy weather.

Not until June does he say "the weather will improve this month," but the improvement may not be what many would wish, for he says a cold wave will pass over the country from the 21st to 23rd.

It is quite likely that the old man ground, hog at the expiration of six weeks, will go back and hibernate a month or two longer.
